DR DANIEL HODGINS

Daniel Hodgins is an exceptional, internationally renowned present and author of many articles on child development. He has authored two books titled: Boys: Changing the Classroom, Not the Child and his new book titled, GET OVER IT, Relearning Guidance Practices. His work has been featured in national publications including International Cooperative Nursery, and Early Childhood News.

As a consultant, Daniel works with educators, parents and other professionals, helping them to understand research based theory and how to adapt curriculum and environments that support the continued development of children and families. Dan has a unique grasp of children and family issues learned from over 30 years of experience working as a teacher, director, educator and parent in both the private and public sector. Much of his work involved children at risk; special needs populations and families with diverse challenges. Dan's interactive style is both informative and entertaining. His insightful presentations are based on current research and filled with practical and effective strategies that can be used immediately.

POWER STRUGGLES... MAKE ME: POWER STRUGGLES AND YOUNG CHILDREN

This year we are focusing on emotion development. The main presentation looks at the differences between teach controlled environments and child-controlled environments. Strategies to help children develop self-control are discussed. Self-Esteem, Anger Releases and Bullying will also be integrated throughout the day. Discussions to look forward to are the signs of low self-esteem and strategies for supporting children to feel better about themselves, what happens to the development of a bully and how to create other avenues of development and encouraging children to demonstrate all feelings in positive ways.
